HO-T'IEN HSIEN SILK FACTORY PLANNED

Plans are under way for establishing a silk factory in Ho-t'ien Hsien, Sinkiang Province. On 19 March, Deputy Chairman Liu Te-en of the Reconstruction Department met with representatives of the Finance Department and the Accounting Bureau to discuss the proposed project. It was decided that the factory's budget should be reduced by economizing on men and machinery. Consequently, the original plan of the Reconstruction Department to hire 72 employees and one factory chief was trimmed down to 52 employees.
